

Paralegal Cup Student Mooting Committee (PCSMC)
3199 Lake Shore Blvd. W.
Toronto, Ont. M8V 1K8

BIOGRAPHY

Fallon entered Humber College's Paralegal Studies Degree program in 2010. Wanting to immerse herself in her field, she started the Paralegal Cup Student Mooting Committee in 2013.

Fallon Burns, founder of the Paralegal Cup Student Mooting Committee.

Fallon was first introduced to mooting competitions in her first year at Humber when she participated in the Osgoode Cup. From there, Fallon has since competed in a series of moots including the Capital Cup at Carleton University and another appearance at the Osgoode Cup in 2013 and 2014.

Fallon is the Student Director of the Ontario Paralegal Association. She has won multiple awards for academic achievement and extensive community involvement. Fallon recently completed her work placement with Precision Paralegal Services and she continues to work for the company on a part-time basis, as she completes her final year of studies.

Fallon plans to continue her academic career at the Master's level, while also working to further Ontario's Access to Justice and strengthening the Paralegal and Legal community.